ROSELIND WILSON DESIGN

LONDON / CAPE TOWN

Roselind Wilson Design is a luxury interior design company and studio that delivers intricately crafted, bespoke homes that encompass the essence of the client. Specialising in high-end residential projects, Roselind Wilson Design creates a unique hybrid of designs that incorporate a calming elegance and a sense of quiet luxury. From structural changes and full refurbishments, to the design and detailing of every interior architect element, the passionate and proficient design team guarantee a process that is seamlessly managed and coordinated to every last detail, providing a high quality design package.

Each space is a sanctuary, crafted and fully accessorised by the luxury specialists' team to complement the lifestyle of the client. In-house interior architects provide a kitchen and bathroom design service as well as a full turnkey service in structural changes. The designers at Roselind Wilson Design use their extensive knowledge and understanding of spatial planning and furniture design to refine and execute individual visions. The company's access to a diverse and unique arsenal of trends and influences, coupled with their extensive supplier database, allows the team to deliver sophisticated and timeless interior schemes.
